

I'm Movin' On

c Bev Zizzy

I'm movin' on, but I'm not leavin' you behind
I'm movin' on, you're not always on my mind
I'm movin' on, I'm not so afraid of letting go
Cause I know that you are with me babe, you're in my soul , so I'm movin' on.

When you left the color in my world drained away
Just facin' every mornin' was the challenge of the day
Kept goin' through the motions, trying to survive
I felt more dead than alive, now I'm . . .

Movin' on, but I'm not leavin' you behind
I'm movin' on, you're not always on my mind
I'm movin' on, I'm not so afraid of letting go
Cause I know that you are with me babe, you're in my soul , so I'm movin' on.

Funny how life just keeps goin' on Yeah it's true that what don't kill you sure makes you strong
Those lessons that you left me with grow stronger too
I'm still smiling for you babe like I promised you

And I'm movin' on, but I'm not leavin' you behind
I'm movin' on, you're not always on my mind
I'm movin' on, I'm not so afraid of letting go
Cause I know that you are with me babe, you're in my soul, so I'm movin on . . .
