We can't do everything but we can all, we can all do something. It's the little things.
We can't do everything but we can all, we can all do something. It's the little things.
We can't do everything but we can all, we can all do something. It's the little things.
We can't do everything but we can all, we can all do something. It's the little things.
It's the little things. It's the little things. It's the little things. It's the little things.
