Intro: G# D# E-Fm C# G# D# E-Fm C# / / 4 beat rest

Verse 1:

G# D# E-Fm C#
I passed the young man sitting on the street, head bowed down, looking at his feet
G# D# E-Fm C# / / /
When I offered him what little change I had, he looked up and smiled, but I left feeling sad
G# D# E-Fm C#
His dark eyes were kind, and I couldn't help wondering what his story was, so alone struggling,
G# D# E-Fm C# B
Cause when one's unloved life's a walk through hell but the sign he had written told the truth well, it said

Chorus:

C# D# C# B C# D# C# B G# / / D# E-Fm C# / / / /
Some-times we just need a lit - tle help Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Verse 2:

G# D# E-Fm C#
The last time I saw her she was sharing proud stories of her son who'd left home for bright lights & glory
G# D# E-Fm C# / / /
A few months later, reading the paper, I discover he's gone, now more lives are shattered
G# D# E-Fm C#
Another young man lost and I couldn't help wondering what his story was, why he had to be going
G# D# E-Fm C# B
Cause when a loved one leaves life's a walk through hell, so that sign on the street still tells it well, it said,

Chorus:

C# D# C# B C# D# C# B G# / / D# E-Fm C# / / / /
Some-times we just need a lit - tle help Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

G# D# E-Fm C# . Repeat loop for 8 bars.

Verse 3:

G# D# E-Fm C#
Seems that life is a mystery, with no guarantees, Nothing is easy and nothing is free
G# D# E-Fm C#
All that is certain is the good times are better when you've got someone to share them together
G# D# E-Fm C#
And when the roads are rough and the times are tougher and you just don't feel you can take it any longer
G# D# E-Fm C# B
The wisdom of that young man sittin' on the street still holds true for you and me. He said

Chorus:

C# D# C# B C# D# C# B C# D# F# D# C# D# C# B G#
Some-times we just Sometimes we just Sometimes we just need a lit - tle help
