F G#
I thank all of the friends who have held me, cajoled me

Not tried to control me, just helped me smile
Who have never denied me, tried to define me
Let me be crazy, let me be wild

Chorus 2:

I thank all of the friends who have stayed there beside me
When all that I wanted to do was be gone
I had nothing to offer but sadness and anger
But still they hung on to help me along
